

US Army Corps of Engineers
Baltimore District

Baltimore District Fact Sheet

Mission	To provide quality engineering, technical and environmental services to a variety of Department of Defense and non-Defense customers throughout the mid-Atlantic region and overseas
Staff	858 civilian employees, average pay grade GS-9, and seven active duty Army officers
Region	23 military installations in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland, the District of Columbia and parts of northern Virginia; watersheds encompassing nearly 49,000 square miles from southern New York state to northern Virginia and from West Virginia to the Atlantic coast, including the Susquehanna and Potomac Rivers and the Chesapeake Bay north of the Maryland-Virginia line; 7,000 miles of the Chesapeake Bay's environmentally sensitive shoreline; and the nation's capital
Locations	49 field offices throughout a multi-state region and the headquarters in the City Crescent Building, 10 South Howard Street, Baltimore, Md.
Elected officials	12 U.S. senators; 46 U.S. representatives; six governors; numerous state legislators; the mayors of Baltimore, Md., the District of Columbia, Frederick, Md., Ocean City, Md., Harrisburg, Pa., Scranton, Pa., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and many smaller cities and towns; and numerous county executives and commissioners
Snapshot of projects	2,066 total
	Military projects	1076
	Civil Works projects	466
	Environmental projects	421
	Interagency & international services	103
Total Fiscal 2007 program	$990 million
	Military program	$729 million
	Civil Works program	$ 93 million
	Environmental	$ 51 million
	Interagency & international services	$ 75 million
	Washington Aqueduct	$ 42 million
Ecosystem Restoration	670 acres of wetland habitat were restored or created among eight projects in fiscal 2007
Flood protection	14 flood control reservoirs and 58 local flood protection projects
Flood damage prevented	Approximately $86.2 million in fiscal 2007
Recreation	More than 145 million visitor hours at 11 dams and lakes in fiscal 2007
Maintain navigation	290 miles of federal navigation channels maintained
Regulate wetlands	5,775 permit applications received; 5,884 applications completed; 481 pre-application consultations performed; and 3,838 jurisdictional determinations completed in fiscal 2007
Supply drinking water	180 million gallons of drinking water supplied per day by Washington Aqueduct to the District of Columbia, and in Virginia to Arlington County and the Falls Church service area
Respond to emergencies	Natural disasters, such as floods and hurricanes, and other emergencies. During 2007, three employees deployed to support missions resulting from the effects of Hurricane Katrina
Support to the Global War on Terrorism	Since 2005, 128 employees have deployed for various support missions	