Grandfathering of PASPGP-4 Authorizations

Was the PASPGP-4 authorization valid as of June 30, 2016?

- Yes
  - Has the PADEP authorization expired?
    - Yes
      - Applicant must reapply to PADEP for state and federal authorization.
    - No
      - Has construction commenced or was construction of the regulated work under contract to commence prior to June 30, 2016?
        - Yes
          - Project has until June 30, 2017 to complete the regulated work under the terms and conditions of the PASPGP-4 authorization. If additional time is needed to complete the work, the work may qualify for PASPGP-5 authorization. Is additional time needed?
            - Yes
              - The activity is reauthorized without further notice to the applicable Corps District. Duration of these authorizations are for the full term of PASPGP-5, until June 30, 2021, or until the PADEP authorization expires, whichever is first.
            - No
              - Complete authorized work by June 30, 2017.
        - No
          - Was the PASPGP-4 a CAT I/II activity or a CAT III activity?

CAT I/II

- Yes
  - Does the activity comply with all of the terms, conditions, limits, and best management practices of the PASPGP-5, including activities listed as Non reporting Activity under PASPGP-5?
    - Yes
      - The activity is reauthorized without further notice to the applicable Corps District under PASGP-5. Duration of these authorizations are for the full term of PASPGP-5, until June 30, 2021, or until the PADEP authorization expires, whichever is first.
    - No
      - Complete authorized work by June 30, 2017.

CAT III

- No
  - Complete authorized work by June 30, 2017.

Is PADEP authorization still valid?

- Yes
  - Applicant must reapply to PADEP for federal authorization.
- No
  - Apply to Corps for federal authorization.

Has the PADEP authorization expired?

- Yes
  - Applicant must reapply to PADEP for state and federal authorization.
- No
  - Has construction commenced or was construction of the regulated work under contract to commence prior to June 30, 2016?
    - Yes
      - Project has until June 30, 2017 to complete the regulated work under the terms and conditions of the PASPGP-4 authorization. If additional time is needed to complete the work, the work may qualify for PASPGP-5 authorization. Is additional time needed?
        - Yes
          - The activity is reauthorized without further notice to the applicable Corps District. Duration of these authorizations are for the full term of PASPGP-5, until June 30, 2021, or until the PADEP authorization expires, whichever is first.
        - No
          - Complete authorized work by June 30, 2017.
    - No
      - Was the PASPGP-4 a CAT I/II activity or a CAT III activity?

5/25/2016